Section 6 - Declaration

PART-66, Appendix II, 1.11 states “All PART-66 modules that make up a complete PART-66 aircraft maintenance licence category or sub category must be passed within a 5 year time period of passing the first module except in the case specified in paragraph 1.12. A failed module may not be re-taken for at least 90 days following the date of the failed module examination, except in the case of a PART-147 approved maintenance training organisation which conducts a course of retraining tailored to the failed subjects in the particular module when the failed module may be re-taken after 30 days”.

Applicants wishing to re-take any failed modules within 90 days must provide a course completion certificate detailing:-

- the training establishments name and address
- the applicants (your) name
- details of the training given relating to the failed modules
- duration and dates of training
- a signature by appropriately authorised training personnel

By signing the declaration you are confirming that all of the information is correct and true.
